

Wedding Bells

KILLIAN—MILLIGAN
A pretty wedding took place at the United Church manse, Drummond street, on Wednesday morning, Nov. 10, 1910.

On Feb. 22, when Mr. Paul D. Kilpatrick, of North Side Garage, Milwaukee, was in the city, he was called on by Mrs. E. J. Milgrom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Milgrom, south-east of Chicago. The bride was given away by her father and attended by friends, Miss Margaret Simpson, of Madison. The groom was supported by Mr. William Newman, of Lake. Rev. A. R. Selberg officiated. The bride looked very charming in gown of white satin, carrying a

The bridegroom was very busy, in a gown of podge green, and a crown of holly leaves and berries. After spending a honeymoon at Bassi, the honeymoon will take up their residence at Delhi. The immediate relatives of both parties were present.
